

Roads Access to Harpers Ferry

Directions to Harpers Ferry Center

The National Park Service's Harpers Ferry Interpretive Design Center, in West Virginia's Eastern Panhandle, houses the divisions of Audiovisual Arts, Conservation, Exhibits, Historic Furnishings, Interpretive Planning, Publications, and Wayside Exhibits. It also houses the Harpers Ferry Center administrative offices of Information Management, Library, Procurement, Programs and Budget, Quality Management and Human Resources, Support Services, and Visitor Accessibility and Training.

Harpers Ferry Center is located in historic Harpers Ferry, West Virginia, just off U.S. 340, approximately 45 miles northwest of the Washington, D.C. beltway and approximately 40 miles from Dulles International Airport. It can be reached either through Virginia by Va. 7, Va. 9, and Va. 671 to U.S. 340 west; or through Maryland by I-270 and U.S. 340. The Center can also be easily reached from Baltimore and points east via I-70 and U.S. 340, and from I-81 via W. Va. 51. For more information call the Manager's office at 304-535-6211.